

James Herrick is the Guy Vanderjagt Professor of Communication at Hope College in Holland, MI specializing in rhetoric. He enjoys thoughtful discourse and is a wise engager of the academy.

He began his teaching career at Hope College in 1984, after attaining his Ph.D. from the University of Wisconsin. His BA is from California State University, and the Department of Communication at the University of California-Davis awarded his MA. Dr. Herrick served as chair of the Hope College Department of Communication from 1993-2003. He is the 2007 recipient of the Ruth and John Reed Faculty Achievement Award.

Jim is married to Janet and they have four children. In his spare time Jim writes, does landscaping, and occasionally retreats to California. He is looking forward to a sabbatical in 2010.

Come spend a weekend of learning and renewal at Taconic Retreat & Conference Center in rural New York. Gather with other graduate students for worship, small group discussions, stimulating keynotes and life stories from faculty and students. There will be time for walks, naps, coffee breaks and conversation over the course of the weekend. We hope you can join us!

Redeeming Babylon Theme Verse

“For he is the living God
and he endures forever;
his kingdom will not be destroyed,
his dominion will never end.
He rescues and he saves;
He performs signs and wonders
In the heavens and on the earth.
He has rescued Daniel
From the power of the lions.”

-- Daniel 6:26-27

REDEEMING BABYLON: God's Kingdom comes to Academia

Jesus' incarnation, death and resurrection speaks of the fullness of the Kingdom of God and invites us to follow Him into his Lordship over all things, including academia. However, our experience in graduate school and in our work may state otherwise.

What does a faithful community of work, learning and practice look like in the midst of a broken, sometimes hostile, landscape? How do we live and love fearlessly in the vocational contexts that God has called us to? Who is this God who has called us, and what in the world is He up to?

Come join us as we explore the life, community, and career of a civil servant named Daniel, as he and his friends fully engage their environment and their God without compromising either, from their "graduate school" beginnings to the pinnacles of power.
