Radical Hospitality Theme Scripture: 1 John 3:16-24

We know love by this, that he laid down his life for us—and we ought to lay down our lives for one another. How does God’s love abide in anyone who has the world’s goods and sees a brother or sister in need and yet refuses help? Little children, let us love, not in word or speech, but in truth and action. And by this we will know that we are from the truth and will reassure our hearts before him whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything.

Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have boldness before God; and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we obey his commandments and do what pleases him. And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. All who obey his commandments abide in him, and he abides in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit that he has given us.

RADICAL HOSPITALITY:

Jesus' Invitation to Community

Resting in the presence of God is impossible when our hearts condemn us to the prisons of driving work and lifestyles that demand our worship. Yet Jesus invites a different worship: that of laying down our lives and resources for the sake of God's radical invitation to love our neighbors with God's love. This worship frees us from the condemnation of our hearts. This worship allows God's love and presence to flourish within both us, and the community He has called us to dwell in.

Join us for Telos '11 as we learn about God's radical hospitality for us, and the radical hospitality we're called to practice. It is a spiritual discipline of making room for God, neighbor, and community within our lives, just as God has made room for us in his life as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Come spend a weekend of learning and renewal at Full Moon Resort in rural New York. Gather with graduate students, faculty, and their families for worship, small group discussions, stimulating keynotes and life stories from faculty and students. There will be time for walks, naps, coffee breaks and conversation over the course of the weekend. We hope you can join us!
